

That the Power of Money

in making more money is the secret of getting rich is generally admitted.

The average so-called "savings deposit" is only $400—yet this $400 represents 6 per cent. interest on nearly $7,000 for a full year. As the most of these accounts were started with a deposit of one to ten dollars and gradually increased to their present size, doesn't it seem that you can do fully as well as others? Make up your mind to DO IT—then it's merely a case of application. Your earnings are as large, or larger, than those of the average depositor referred to, only—you haven't been banking your money.

Come in and let us tell you some other reasons why you should have a bank account.

A Meeting of Much Interest.

The meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Roanoke Baptist Association which convenes here to-day (Thursday) will be one of considerable interest. There will be perhaps a hundred delegates and visitors to the meeting, and the work of the Missionary Institute will be helpful and instructive to the woman of all denominations.

General missionary work will be studied and discussed, and the women's mass meeting in the Baptist church to-night (Thursday), which is to be addressed by Miss Heck of Raleigh will prove quite interesting and beneficial to those who attend; and all the ladies of the town have been especially invited to that meeting as well as to all the others.

Dr. William H. Smith, of Richmond, Va., a well trained missionary worker, will deliver an address Friday night on missions to which the public generally is invited. This will be a rare opportunity for the people of Scotland Neck to hear ably discussed this branch of Christian work.

Death of Capt. W. H. Day.

Capt. William H. Day, a native of Halifax county and all his life a resident of the county, until a few years ago when he moved to Raleigh, died in that city last Saturday, October 31st.

He was one of the most brilliant and well equipped lawyers of the State and had a host of friends and admirers in many parts of the country. The following brief item concerning his funeral is taken from the News and Observer of November 3rd.

"The funeral of the late Capt. William Henry Day was conducted from the Good Shepherd church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the rector, Rev. I. McK. Pittinger, D. D. The interment was in Oakwood cemetery. The service was simple, beautiful and touching. Capt. Day's friends were almost without number and many people from other cities were here to pay the last sad respects to his memory before he was laid away to rest.

"The pall bearers were his intimate friends, these being: ex-Chief Justice George H. Brown, ex-Judge Thomas B. Womack, ex-Associate Justice Walter A. Montgomery, Capt. Thomas W. Mason, Col. Thomas S. Kenan, Col. Thomas M. Argo and Dr. V. E. Turner."

Mrs. Bettie A. Harrell.

(Reported to The Commonwealth.)

On last Friday morning at 7 o'clock Mrs. Bettie A. Harrell passed from time to eternity. Her death came unexpectedly although it was known that she was not in a good state of health.

Mrs. Harrell was born September 21, 1849 and died October 30, 1908. Age 59 years, 1 month and 9 days. Her husband Benjamin T. Harrell preceded her in death three years ago last June. There were born to Mr. and Mrs. Harrell five children four of whom survive her. The surviving children are: Mr. W. L. Harrell, of Scotland Neck, Mrs. P. C. Cohoon, of Elizabeth City, Mrs. H. W. Mixon, and Mrs. Theo. House, of Scotland Neck.

Mrs. Harrell was born and reared in Halifax county and had a host of friends. As a neighbor she was kind and obliging, as a friend she was true and sincere, as a parent she was devoted and affectionate and as a Christian she was humble and devout. Her kind hands are stilled, her loving voice is hushed, her gentle eyes are shut. A good woman is gone. A mother in Israel has fallen to sleep.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. A. McFarland on Saturday afternoon and her body was placed away to rest in the Baptist cemetery until the resurrection morn.

May the Comforter sustain and keep the sorrowing ones.

Scotland Neck Baptist Church Scotland Neck North Carolina [No invitations sent out in town.]

Mr. W. H. Bell.

(Reported to The Commonwealth.)

Mr. W. H. Bell died at his home on Roanoke street at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening. Mr. Bell was born February 12, 1837, age at death 71 years, 8 months and 20 days.

Early in the Civil War he entered the service of his country as a soldier and made a brave and enviable record in the Confederate ranks.

On October 16, 1866, he was married to Miss Laura Jones. To this union there were born four children, two of whom, with his wife, survive him. The two living children are Mr. C. H. Bell, of Portsmouth, and Miss Nannie Bell, of Scotland Neck.

The funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon by Rev. R. A. McFarland and the interment was in the Episcopal cemetery.

May the Lord give to the grief-stricken ones the needed comfort in this the hour of their sad bereavement.

Kitchin-Clark.

(Reported to The Commonwealth.)

On Tuesday, the third of November at a quarter to ten o'clock Miss Rebecca Calvert Clark was married to Dr. Thurman Delna Kitchin, of Lumberton. The ceremony, which took place at Trinity Church was performed by Rev. S. M. Hanff, of Duke, assisted by Rev. W. J. Smith, of Charlotte.

While the guests were assembling and during the ceremony several well-known selections were played by Miss Lizzie Hyman. The processional was the Tannhauser March, while the wedding hymn "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden," sung by a full choir served as a recessional. The ushers were Messrs. Chas. McDowell, Leland Kitchin, Hugh Kitchin and Henry Clark. Preceded by her sister, Miss Anna Clark, as maid-of-honor the bride entered the church with her father, Dr. H. I. Clark and was met at the chancel railing by the groom with his best man, Mr. J. D. Proctor, of Lumberton.

The day selected for the wedding being the twenty-third anniversary of the wedding of the bride's parents the details as nearly as possible resembled those of the former occasion. The bride wore a travelling dress of brown, with brown hat, gloves and shoes and trimmings from her mother's wedding dress and carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. The maid-of-honor wore a cream voile dress and picture hat and carried an armful of Marechal Niel roses.

The church was beautifully decorated in yellow chrysanthemums and ferns.

The night before the wedding a public reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where a large number of the friends of both bride and groom called to tender their good wishes and see the lovely presents.

After a short wedding trip Dr. and Mrs. Kitchin will be at Lumberton where Dr. Kitchin is successfully engaged in the practice of medicine having taken a high stand at the Jefferson Medical College and before the Medical Board of North Carolina. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. I. Clark and both she and the groom are well-known throughout the social and political circles of the State.

The out-of-town guest were Capt. and Mrs. Haywood Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barrow and Miss May Weaver Barrow, of Port Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. John L. Bridges, Misses Kate Chehshire, Reba Bridges, and Katherine Bourne, of Tarboro; Miss Louise Moore, of Edenton; Misses Leath Barrow and Minnie Burgwyn, of Jackson; Mr. F. C. Gordon, of Portsmouth, Va.; Rev. S. M. Hanff, of Duke; Rev. W. J. Smith, of Charlotte; Messrs. A. H. McCleod and J. D. Proctor, of Lumberton; and Mr. Ben Finney, of Savannah, Ga.

Death of a Child.

(Reported to The Commonwealth.)

Died Sunday morning at 8 o'clock little Charlie, the infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Barr. Little Charlie was born September 16th and died October 24th. He only stayed with us a short while. All was done for him that could be done but it was all in vain. The Lord called the little angel and he had to go, but we miss him so much for he was so bright, but we hope he is an angel in heaven and hope we will meet him there. He was laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The burial services were conducted by Rev. R. A. McFarland.

Safely, safely gathered in Far from sorrow, far from sin. No more childish grief or fear, No more sadness, no more tears For the life so young and fair Now hath passed from earthly care. God himself the soul will keep Giving his beloved sheep.

Friends and relatives sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Barr in their deep bereavement.
